

Unihub Composite Learning

The complete solution to good grades and opportunities

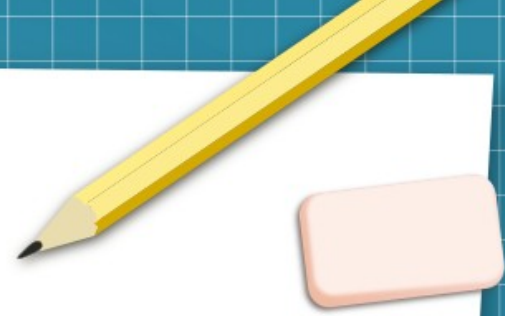

Our mission to enhance e-learning

Unihub composite learning app is a complete mobile solution to quality education provision in Nigeria and beyond with the aim of facilitating students in tertiary institutions with array of courses and techniques that presents an individual and group learning and assessment provisions.

It serves an interface consisting of well summarized text and open video content, course learning materials, real-time in-app tests, live online class section, and mock examinations that cuts across all courses, real-time messaging between students that cut across all tertiary institutions and universities in the country, a market place ecosystem that enhances exchanges of learning materials and relevant ads assuredly to it's user base and expose students to opportunities.

App features

- Learning page consisting of both video and text contents
- National news on the educational front face
- Real-time live on-line class section nation wide
- Provide students in-house examination experience parsed with recent past questions on various courses
- A to-do list interface that should assist student keep track of learning records and events
- Give students access to various social media rooms whereby they come together and interact
- Providing students with quality contents for boosting their awareness about their area of study
- It's paves way for producing highly competent graduates to highlight the issues and paths to success in the nation.

For more info and support for the Unihub project the contact the Unihub customer team on

Email: uiedbook.info@gmail.com
Phone: 08166948755

Unihub © 2022 All rights reserved Uiedbook team